

Associate Consultant, Behavioral Science and Healthcare

VAL Health is the leading health-related behavioral science consulting firm. We apply a behavioral lens to develop strategies and actionable solutions for our clients that measurably improve health, increase engagement and lower the cost of healthcare.

WE'RE LOOKING FOR AN ASSOCIATE CONSULTANT:

- An intellectually curious self-starter who thrives in a fast-paced, collaborative environment with a passion that includes behavioral economics, healthcare and consulting.

AS AN ASSOCIATE CONSULTANT, YOU WILL:

- Develop presentation skills as a core member of the consulting team;
- Synthesize client materials to identify key insights;
- Learn to translate behavioral science research into behavior change solutions;
- Contribute to firm-building by advancing our thought leadership;
- Get to sleep in your own bed as our teams have limited travel.

WHY ADVANCE YOUR CAREER AT VAL HEALTH?

- Impact: You will have an opportunity to be a part of a rapidly growing organization that makes a powerful impact on health and healthcare through transformative behavioral science-based strategies.
- Culture: We are an incredibly talented team invested in each other's success and professional growth, working together in a casual environment that emphasizes diversity of thought and opinion among all team members.
- Rapid Career Advancement: You'll collaboratively set your goals and receive frequent feedback to know how you're doing against them.
- Thought Leaders: We offer a unique opportunity to have direct interactions with our behavioral science advisory board.
- Top Tier Clients: We work across the healthcare ecosystem with clients who are transforming healthcare, such as UnitedHealthGroup, Verily, Sutter Health and Mount Sinai.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor's degree
- 1-2 years professional experience with a track record of taking ownership and driving results
- Lived experience contributing to a different perspective
- Demonstrated excellence in verbal and written communications
- Proven team player and self-starter
- Ability to work in a fast paced, entrepreneurial environment

The Associate Consultant will be based in New York City with a hybrid approach to in-office and work-from-home. We offer competitive compensation and opportunities for rapid career advancement.
